MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, CA/PROP

ATTENTION: ☐ ☐

SUBJECT: Project AERODYNAMIC Literature Output

REFERENCE: Your 18 August 1965 Memorandum
to C/CA/PEG

1. It was recommended in the reference memorandum that a disinterested evaluation of the contents of Project AERODYNAMIC output be added to the next project renewal request. In accordance with this request, and in accordance with the telephone conversation between you and Mrs. Stunder of this office, attached for evaluation and comments are translations of some of the material published by the project. Additional material will be forwarded as translations from the Ukrainian are made available.

2. The article on pages 36-37 and 38 of the January 1966 Atlas magazine, the article by Roman Rakhmany in the JPRS publication, and the article on Petro TRON'KO's debut at the United Nations all appeared in the Munich publication Suchasnist. Suchasnist is a monthly journal, copies of which are mailed to the USSR and handed to Soviet citizens in the West. According to at least two Soviet Ukrainian sources (literary types) the journal is the most widely read and respected Ukrainian emigre publication and is available to Soviet Ukrainian writers for reading either at the Ukrainian Union of Writers or at the Association for Cultural Ties with Ukrainians Abroad. The Permanent representative of the Soviet Ukrainian delegation at the United Nations has asked for and received copies of this publication, and he has criticized articles which appeared in the publication.

The Information Bulletin appears about 6 times annually and is directed exclusively at the Soviet Ukrainian citizen. It should be remembered in reviewing the material in this publication that it is written to
